

The concentration of ownership in the broadcasting industry has already gone much too far. Do not approve anything that would encourage further concentration and, indeed, do change the rules to reverse this trend. The very fact that this very important topic has been totally ignored by the networks is a clear indication of the dangers involved in moving in this direction. The very basis of democracy is being undermined. STOP THIS TRAVESTY!!!! You are the watchdogs for the public. DO YOUR JOB!!!!